Wonder why I didn't see this before. Queen your an idiot. I know I defended you in the past because I still don't think you cheat cause you suck to much to be one or your doing something wrong with your hacks. I won't be defending you anymore.

You say this is only about your IP but yet you posted all the forum rules. If you go back and read all your posts you can clearly see this is about revenge for being flamed in the forums. People here aren't idiots.

I told you when this whole thing started to just let it go and come back after some time has passed. Like months down the road but no you couldn't do that. You had to respond to every single flame. I told you a few more times to let it go which i thought you had then you posted a fuck you post in the general section. If you don't like what's being said here then change the channel. No one is forcing you to be here.

Every time you responded to that thread over you cheating it made you look even more guilty. I know for a fact that was your screen shot. Now if you were online or off that much I don't know. You lied in that thread and made me look like a fool defending you over it. Only reason I responded in the recent thread was that their still isn't any proof and I have seen how you play.

Some might excuse you as a cheater cause they think everyone at N00bstories cheats anyway. Just go read the thread at UN for the Rockstar mod. Seems he gets a pass since everyone here cheats which may or may not be true, but I'm sure every server has their fair share. I myself have chosen to never cheat online or off. It feels good to own in a game and know it wasn't cause I cheated.

Need to add this thread to the Darwin Awards site. If you think your impressing anyone with getting a lawyer your not. There are thousands of lawyers who will chase any stupid story that comes along.

My advice to you is learn how to change the channel and grow some balls.

About time. Fuck.
