few weeks now, although I made this a week ago. I started recoloring first, then working with textures, and then I decided to use the c&c3 texture pack
Though I beleive this was my second vehicle skin.

The arrows are one of the main things I like, and in my opinion there aren't to many. But that's a matter of opinion I guess.

Though thanks all fo rthe kind reactions I'll release some other things here to I think
