I was playing on black-widows coop server with peeB and some other player. First game went fine but there was a problem on the second game. PeeB told everyone to not go beyond a certain point and trying to work together I think everyone stayed back for the moment, which was fine for the moment. I can only assume he didn't see me with all the action going on in the area and killed me for going ahead..... I told him that wasn't right, also that I in fact didn't even move on, and noobed him for mod abuse. He then qkicked me for "fag" because I noobed him... I came back and he failingly tried to bmute and mute me immediately after and when that failed he proceeded to kick-ban me instead...

Wtf is he doing killing me for playing anyway? Is this kind of immaturity acceptable in black-widow? Is it normal behaviour for black-widow mods to act like nazis or is it just him?
