Thing is TT is mostly code and I dont think that is showable BUT I do have to agree that when TT began most of the reneplayers were over excited and now we dont know what TT is going to be. (Except for shiny water and an autodownloader and anti-cheat.)

There must be a way to show people what you guys are doing? Or giving people the feeling that progress is being made? (Dont get me wrong I'm sure you guys are making progress but for the Reneplayers that is hard to see/notice)
