Reborn requires scripts 4.0, a project that TT is working on. However, since Reborn just has to do some bug and balance fixes other than the things that require scripts 4.0, it's probably safe to assume that Reborn will come out first.

i thought C&C4 is the last in the C&C franchise o.O dident EA say that!?

or did i cry all for nothing?
C&C 4 is the last installment of the Kane saga. They never said anything about ending Tiberium, Red Alert, Generals, or C&C all together.
