McPolitics are just too retarded to entertain. You've got every dipshit hick like muaddib under the impression that they have to contribute their uninformed opinions to every single issue that's currently being politicized. Then the leftist fringe has to find a rebuttal and we end up with predictions on how the US or the world is going to stop existing in 10 years and a debate on who's a Washington elitist and how nobody's going to take away our guns and freedomz. All of these idiots never seem to realize that their bitching and moaning has little to no effect on the mostly centrist policies that result...all they did was fill the media's pockets.
