Due to short notice, could we play this one tomorrow instead? I haven't heard anything from Shadow-Team, nor do we know anything about server-information. We can probably be fully prepared tomorrow granted we get the information we need.

I'm shippo from shadow team I believe that tomorrow would be ok, however it is a little rushed and some of our players may not find out it is tomorrow. As an alternative would next Saturday be ok as well, if we can't make it tomorrow?
