I want to apologize all of you for mistake i made on n00bstories , i knew it was bad but i wasn't using ever this crap to get advantage. I was just curious, as much as it was wrong as much i feel bad. I hope guys you understood then everyone makes big mistakes, and i made it. I'm not going to use it once again, never. I believe then a lot of you are going to flame me now and start with post "stop troll" and everything related to that, but i felt they pain cause of losing %mod and ability to play n00bstories. You might not believe me, but everyone has chance to break.
