TheGunrunDoes any one have an idea of the what the world will be in the year 3000?

History repeats itself, so lets look at that.

The year 1000 - A little after the fall of the Roman Empire, just before the Middle Ages.

The year 2000 - Well, I think you know.

Heh. That's one unfathomably large amount of technilogical advancments.

It's impossible to even try to think of what they'll have in a thousand years, just as it was for the Romans to think of the things we have today...

From 2000-3000 may not seem like long numerically, but if everyone gave birth to their children at age 30, that's 33 generations.

Or, your
