Hmmm.

For Tireless Rebutter there is no such thing as a trivial dispute.
There certainly are very trivial disputes.

He regards all challenges as barbarians at the gates.
If I was to choose a metaphor, I think I'd probably go with wasps.

His unflagging tenacity in making his points numbs and eventually wears down the opposition.
Understatement. The word "infuriates" ought to be in there too.

Confident that his arguments are sound
This applies to most people, but when people lose an argument they say it about the winner as if it's an insult.

Tireless Rebutter can't understand why he is universally loathed.
if you're talking about Jelly, I can certainly understand that. If you remember, we had a little chat about it a while ago when I was playing anonymously. You agreed with what I said.
