I don't go play places to see how many people I can piss off. If I know damn good and well that they hate me, and I join their server anyway and someone starts giving me shit, then Yes it IS my fault. I had the opportunity to avoid the situation and I did not. Skill level or not if you are Knowingly going into somewhere that you know you are going to be involved in some shit then yes you should stay away. If you go in then you are just as much at fault as the people giving you shit.

"just as much at fault"?

Just as much? Really?

If you think: let these idiots attack me relentlessly for no reason, I'll just play the game - i.e. if you refuse to bullied into staying away - that makes you "just as much at fault"? You really, really think this?

would you be flamed if you didn't go to a place you know they hated you?

kadoosh wrote on Fri, 09 October 2009 21:38While that seems kind of funny It is a relevant comparison. You go into the Jelly forums and basically tell them the way they play via the point system is wrong and the point fix is right. This is you telling them that their choices are wrong. This is instigating something.

At this point I would like you to link us to a specific example. (Nobody else do it for him, please.) you want me to go register at jelly so I can find you links? Do you post things on the points fix there? Do these things state that playing without the points fix is wrong? It's quite simple as I've see the threads in n00bstories from you debating I can only assume they are somewhat close, although probably more heated. To answer your request No I will not go register at Jelly so I can browse through topics I don't care about.

kadoosh wrote on Fri, 09 October 2009 21:38You know they don't like it and you do it anyway. You bring it on yourself. Is it justified? Hell I don't know I don't visit Jelly's forums to see what they say in response, BUT if you continue to do it knowing they are going to react that way then yes you are at fault.

I don't accept your logic. If I think something ought to be said I'll say it. I won't be bullied into silence. Perhaps you are more easily cowed. And I absolutely don't accept that the person who rises above the retards and simply expresses his opinion even though he'll get flamed for it is "just as much at fault" as the idiots who are flaming him for nothing worse than a disagreement of opinion. It seems incredibly stupid, and not only that, I appear to be the only person you're actually criticising, so perhaps you don't actually think the faults are equal?

If they are giving you shit then yes I would criticize them. I don't know what they are saying as I have stated in what you just quoted there, "I DON'T GO TO JELLY". If they are giving you shit then yeah it's probably not deserved. But it is happening and you have the power to make it stop. If you continue to go there then yes you are just as much at fault for putting yourself in the position.

kadoosh wrote on Fri, 09 October 2009 21:38 I never said anything specific about CW.cc. I just keep seeing people saying you talk about the points fix and CW.cc there. I don't know any of the situations you just said.

No, evidently you don't, since you said I was the instigator.

Rinse repeat. You want to do this again? If you post in a topic involving anything they will flame you. If you post about the pointsfix they will flame you. If you post about CW.cc they will flame you. If you post about cats fucking on your fire escape they will flame you. Get it. I'm not addressing anything specific. You know damn well if you post a flame is coming. As soon as you post it, you instigated it on yourself. If you can't see that then get help.

kadoosh wrote on Fri, 09 October 2009 21:38 Way to take a broad comment and try to make it look like I know what the fuck you are talking about when it comes to CW.cc or anything else you talk about on jelly. That was a very dishonest move on your part there and not appreciated.

Er... you're saying it's dishonest of me to assume you knew what you were talking about?

Even after saying I don't know anything about CW.cc You assume I know what's going on with CW.cc.... nice logic there kadoosh wrote on Fri, 09 October 2009 21:38 I hope for your mental sanity you do take it. It seems as though it's putting you under some unneeded stress.

On the contrary. Being the better man, and seeing one's opposition prove it for you more and more with every post, is not stressful at all.

Do what ever you want I'm done with you. It's pointless to try to logically have a discussion with someone who is only trying to play the victim.
