Somehow you made it extremely easy for us, Mrackz. Same ISP, same writing style, same advantage HUD, referring to Mrackz yourself, ... Now please don't tell me you're his brother / best friend / cousin / goldfish...

The release is not allowed because of the two reasons explained above:
1. it's a considerable advantage, even if you only have it enabled for your team.
2. you need to release the source code which would make it easy like hell to expand the modification to display the enemy team's building bars, providing you with the same advantage for enemy buildings.

LoL.
SeriousFat what a nick.
