Br.net has FUK programed in it to kick....The servers run because of the xxx site....he has people that have said I'd like to help the server out with a donation or what not so if they are 21 they can donate to what keeps the server up....Bans for swearing are not permanant...I'd just leave a msg in the bans section saying you were frustrated and was unaware of the rules...and would like to have my ban reviewed...I know you from here and your a good guy,They'd usually check logs to see if you tried to go around the filter or have been a problem in the pass,If not your ban will be lifted.

I let BR kick people for cussing,I watch for people screwing around and Hampering their team and acting like N00bs...i must say theres alot of well mannered people there nowadays,And I'd like to see you in-game again soon.

Just post a lil msg in the ban section and we will take care of it.
