The songs were okay, but way too mainstream, and they lacked a lot of what made them popular in the first place. With exception to Bleed it Out (which I didn't like), they seemed to have completely abandoned their nu-metal/rap mix.

The last two music albums I liked that were fairly recent would be Rise Against's "Appeal to Reason" and Breaking Benjamin's "Dear Agony". I'm still waiting on a lot of new albums in the coming months, but it looks like rock is at a low these days.
