On the "mass survey of female gamers" not working, true.

All the non-attention-whoring female gamers do not answer to these, or try to hide the fact they are female, as if in shame.

I've actually played with a few on various games and I have many different experiences especially with those of the attention whoring nature, ignoring them is really annoying when they fucking scream over the mike, though when they start, the mute button always helps. and blocking communication...

Anyways, most of the attention whoring female gamers left me alone after they realized that I am on the outer circle of attention (and I prefer to keep it that way, in most cases.)

Most of what was just mentioned is what most millionaires do today, I mean look at Bill Gates. He only shows the world what he wants the world to see.
