

---

Subject: Re: Which C&C Game Started It For You?

Posted by GEORGE ZIMMER on Mon, 21 Dec 2009 03:14:07 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

I remember I had played Tiberian Dawn on the Nintendo 64. Was pretty dang fun, liked it alot, but I don't remember it too much. Then I got Red Alert: Retaliation for the Playstation 1. That's when I started to really get into C&C- playing lots of skirmishes and having fun with the ant missions and etc. I remember seeing TS but never really played it as I didn't own it.

Came across RA2, that was loads of fun. I remember especially liking that I could take over cities via garrisoning.

Later, I got something called the C&C Collection. Had TS, RA2, FS, YR, and Renegade. That's when I got into Renegade and TS alot. TS definitely got my attention the most though, couldn't believe how awesome it was... also started to learn how to mod on TS .

---