HDD 2 is connected via USB

What free ware program can I clone HDD 2 To HDD 1 on my main pc which both are plugged into?

(by that I mean the IDE one is plugged into my pc (not hard drive im running just another one in there) and my other hard drive which has the OS (windows xp) and etc connected via USB to my pc as well since I dont have anymore connections for IDE lol, so I can access them on my pc, open them up delete files etc But I which to clone them since HDD 1 is 100 gb bigger so please help?

Iv been trying to figure this out for a whiles and google is not helping I need someone with personal experience
