Well, I was dropped from the back of the transport chopper, took out a couple of snipers and had to make my way over to a convoy under attack by Nod forces, so I went over, supported them, engineer blasted tank debris to clear the road. got in to a medium tank than I saw an orca trying to take out some units and it flew away, took out a Nod harvester and made our way over to a Nod base it had an obelisk, SAM sites, scattered infantry, gun turrets and light tanks with mobile artillery.

Direct assault was not possible so randomly some general dude radios in to tell me that an ION strike was underway, and boom, it was very pretty and lol, I walked through the Nod gate and there was a mammoth tank behind me, I was like ...
