Gen_Blacky wrote on Mon, 11 January 2010 22:10I tried installing DirectX SDK August 2006 but after i install it it corrupts my windows 7 and my screen will be black when i restart my pc. had to do a system restore. Can i use a newer version of directx sdk and still compile scripts.dll.
You dont need DirectX SDK to compile scripts.dll only if you also want to compile shaders.dll

And you can use a newer version. I use March 2009 atm if i recall correctly
