I lol'd he has the right to an opinion
I think Carrier is talking about SK's way of expressing his opinion in such a manner in more than just this thread...

I don't mind people not liking my skins, they don't have to use them... I don't like when people think they have to go into douche mode to express their dislike. It is not necessary. I don't make skins for others, I make them for myself.

Bottom line, if you don't like don't use, no need to be a asshat.
In all fairness though, when you post skins on renforums, you're going to get negative comments in some form or another; it's pretty much inevitable.

However, I feel like if you're going to be an asshat about someone's work, do so while saying WHY it's shit.

I know that very well by now, and tbh I am not personally bothered because some people don't like them. I just don't like douchbags.

As I said in first post:

Remember this skin pack was made for fun and lols, not claiming it to be professional grade artwork.
