SPLIT, along with the John Deere tanks thread which I should have split when SK disregarded my moderator remark.

Incidentally, have a warning SK, let's see if that can get you to be nice to other people...

Edit - I merged to lower topic spam, so this won't make much sense: those of you wondering, SK seems to hate nearly everything and this has created a great deal of discussion.

Why can't there be more brits like us on the forums, we're the only civil people online

Stupid American/German e-trolls.
