It will also be the salvation of the start of my record being cleaned up but anyway on topic: I think you should at least play once or twice a certain time span. IE: a month, 2 months, a year, etc.

Fuck you. You cheat now because StarCraft 1 is ancient and nobody cares to enforce cheating policy there anymore. If you think you'll be getting away with the same bullshit all over again, you have another thing coming.

That was me saying i wasnt going to cheat in SC2.... is my english that bad?

You also said you weren't cheating in Renegade, confessing only once you were busted. That makes you a lying sack of shit, even if everyone else seems to be bedazzled with the fact that you didn't press your luck and deny it even after being busted. What will have changed by the time SC2 is released? I can only hope you get caught and banned quickly so you don't ruin too many games.

Hacks will be useless in SC2 anyway and when they become useful there will be such a crackdown on hacks that it wont be worth it there is my reason not to hack SC2... maybe ill actually build some decent SC skills. Of course i know after this post will be ANOTHER useless flame.
