I accept that depicting Michelle as a Monkey isn't nice, but neither is doing it to anyone.

I accept that calling a mentally handicapped person a "mong" is worse than saying it to someone who isn't handicapped. But this is because the word "mong" or "spastic" is specifically and used for describing and cussing said group.

These words only have One real meaning...

Calling a Mexican a "wet-back" is racist, it's only purpose is to basically call them an illegal migrant, and that you hold the person in low regard.

Calling a Mexican a stupid dumb-ass isn't racist. I believe this is what the guy was trying to say with his depiction of Michelle (just the same as others tried depicting when they drew Bush as a Monkey, they wasn't saying he was a black man, they was calling him a dumb-ass).
