Seriously though I hope that dumb bitch dies a pound short of her goal just because that is just completely fucking retarded... Also any sick fuck who pays to see a live version of hungry hungry hippos needs to die also, can't believe there are all these problems with global warming and air pollution when these fuckers are just wasting air with every breath they take.

I am really starting to believe that the story line from Idiocracy (movie) is coming true... someone take that kid from the fat bitch before she is influenced to much.

In short summary: God damn retards need to die.
Man the Harpoons

Theres no way in hell she will make it.

What about world hunger... she sure could donate some food spending shit like that on herself gaining weight thats just bullshit to me. who the fuck spends that much money just to get fat...

And i agree with you on that her kid does need to be taken from her.

I actually saw that movie
