The stuff is pretty expensive, and I've found the food to be mediocre on the few occasions I've been, whether it was the one near Niagara Falls, or the one in downtown Vancouver. Even the 'Hungry Jacks' in Australia, which is their version of BK, sucked.

I haven't had America's version of A&W, but the Canadian one is pretty good. They always have decent deals every week or so. Dairy Queen's burgers are also really awesome, and priced well.

Yeah I know the Burger King by Niagara falls, because I'll go to Niagara falls often (it's an hour away from here). It's pretty crap, but surprisingly better than other Burger Kings around here. But there's a Wendy's right across the street.

A&W is good stuff here as well, my only problem is with the price.
