Lol, this was totally the place to get the attention you wanted, wasn't it. Let's not pretend this topic was started for any other reason.

Yes, because we have a personal vendetta against everyone in our community, and will not stop until we dominate the world through their facebook! BE WARNED.

Don't mistake our lack of involvement in this conversation as anything other than a complete lack of interest. Spread whichever stories you want, I'm sure these people have never seen it before, and totally care. People that belong to neither of our communities, that is.

P.S. Calling me an Aussie cuts deep =(But you're right, my nationality certainly limits my brain function. Now, has anyone seen my kangaroo?
