They? It was Stewie.. The memory leaks weren't even coming from those fixes anyway...it was, and is a crate issue AFAIK. Either way, it was 1 person doing the job of many, and succeeding..

I'll wait til its actually up.

I'd call that judgmental.

I am very judgmental and I am also very good at psychology and being poor does have a factor of who you are so let's try to know what we are talking about before posting.

So far i've only seen you prove this about yourself.

Lol, Yea I have no social skills and I am SOOOOO angry. I gonna go flip cars like the hulk. Let's try to be more of a fucking retard.

He supposedly hacked into his emails and facebook, and changed the password. He then gave them back like 1.5 days later, after Anthrax had a huge fit about it. Sure it was illegal, but it's not like he committed murder or anything (like you are making it seem).

He blatantly used the getpass command on irc for his own gain in a malicious form. Breaking more than one internet related law.

Like i said, i would have done it differently, but at the same time, it's nice to see him finally learn his lesson.

He didn't learn shit. And tbh if he did that with me he would be dealing with a lawsuit.

HaTe wrote on Wed, 07 April 2010 19:10

If that was true, then we wouldn't be having this conversation.

Considering I have had atomix players/mods coming up to me for weeks asking me when it would be up: I am pretty sure that voids the previous.

HaTe wrote on Wed, 07 April 2010 19:10

He did know what they were saying behind his back, because he read their pm's on the forums...after being suspicious. That is why many of them are mad, they feel they were invaded....which is a bunch of shit, because they were the ones sneaking around starting shit.

So thats cools. Abusing his powers more by reading private messages. Also nothing was said in them. Everything was talked about on ts, irc, and msn. So nice fail.

HaTe wrote on Wed, 07 April 2010 19:10

This conversation is not about the mod though. You are trying to make it about the mod, because you need something against Xpert...and cannot find anything better.

The list of the shit xpert has done and claimed to done is endless.

HaTe wrote on Wed, 07 April 2010 19:10

Even if i did...i don't care. Calling one of your little admins a liar is not talking shit about your community, especially when the subject is about an entirely different topic, and community.

You had no grounds to call him a liar considering the log are there.

Lol. I like to PLAY care free. We are not in game right now, and i will defend someone when i feel that they are being attacked wrongfully. That's just me. Deal with it.

Well then in this case you not needed because this attack is not wrongful.

Lets not get so angry cuz your wrong hate.
