It's "you're", you mind differentiating between the two?

Used to it? I don't care what people think of me over Renegade, it's that simple. You obviously do though.

Yea renegade is my life. I am so nice to everyone as you can see cuz i want them to love me. Rofl

Can you not read. That's an opinion by another person. My question was when did I ever say that.

You asked where it came from and that was your answer. Can you not read?

First you act like you know about psychology then you single everyone out and degrade everyone who works at McDonalds judging they are poor just because they work for McDonalds or own one? You must be really fortunate just because you're one rich canadian eh? If I had to psychologically analyze you, I would say you are being flat out prejudice and you are spoiled.

I may have been fortunate in my life but I know have more responsibility then you can even dream of at mcdonalds. Do you honestly believe you can make a living at solely mcdonalds? Because economics says otherwise.

I planned to give it back to begin with. I didn't care about the legal action he kept claiming to do. My self-esteem is just fine tyvm. And I'm not claiming to be his mother so no.

I dont care if you planned to give it back or not. That was completely uncalled for. Thats like someone calling you ugly so you go break into their house and destroy there shit and justify it saying you were gonna replace it.

She doesn't and what does she have to do with it? She hasn't even done anything wrong to anyone and everyone keeps throwing her under the bus along with a few other people.

I never said anything negative about her.

So you admit to judging everything based on what you've seen and opinions instead of knowing the full actual facts. Good, now we're getting somewhere.

The actual facts seem irrelevant considering over half your mod team was going to leave.

Campa got rid of himself. We had entirely different views.

But you kept his mod?

When did I attempt to act like this is "bullshit"? Why do you even bother continuing this debate?

You weren't even involved with this place and are only taking advantage of it for your personal gain. My debates should probably be with the former Atomix people, not you.

Yet you keep replying.

Are you lovin' it?
