HaTe wrote on Thu, 08 April 2010 10:43 I'm not speaking on Xpert's behalf at ANY level. I'm saying MY opinions on the subject, and have stated the facts that I have come to know on the bull shit you all are posting. Seriously, stop crying because Xpert took action against you. Get the hell over it. I'm done posting here, because you all are clearly a HUGE waist of time, and I now understand even MORE why you guys were removed from staff, banned, and whatever else. Seems like you're only here to cause drama. No1 cares. Get over yourself, and stfu. Save us all the time.

HaTe run along, seriously. I am glad you're done posting here, you just waste space with your ignorance.

If you haven't figured it out by now, Atomix split for one reason, and one reason only: differing views on morals(what's right and what's wrong) for a leader.

I started this flame fest after the bans, this was my outlet. Shit flinging, I do not deny it. There were more then just these few issues, these were just the highlights that I used as fodder.

In the end I got what I came for.

Oh and I just noticed this bit I'd like to share with you all: In the 5 years I have been on this forum, almost half of my total posts are right here.
