Yeah I liked that convo, it was cool. So was his with me. One of you is a liar, and really it matters little. The point was you like to read PMs.

Don't imply that I "liked" reading them. I read 3, get over it. Luckily updating the forums got rid of it. Someone told me it could of been PHP coded added into it manually and it got overwritten by the upgrade. But whatever, what's been done is done.

Each time you would delete all admin tracks in the Admin CP for the forums. Did you seriously think dippy/Hero/myself never noticed, or talked about it?

I do that all the time. So that really is irrelevant to anything at all. I do that on all the forums I run or administrate for the last 7 years. I just do it to do it.

You weren't ahead of me in anything unfortunately. Bitching out Rengirl because she didn't tell you weeks sooner, when you found out last week, was kind of funny. It wasn't her fault.

Nothing was her fault so I wish you and everyone else would stop dragging her into it. And I never bitched at her for anything related to this at all. So stop claiming I did.

As to the whole drama, all I'll say is that there's no shame at working in Mc Donalds at all, at least it's a contribution to the economy and that IPB doesn't just go spitting out emails with PM's to the admins. I know what I'm talking about there...

I just read somewhere that Mc D's stocks are doing pretty good for being in these tough times. Not that I care, but I thought it would be some good facts to some.

I know what you mean about IPB. Honestly, I been using IPB forever, I like it a lot. It's the first time I've seen something like that. Believe me, I freaked out. I just really wish I still had the screenshot to show you but I reformated my computer a few months ago and I lost a lot of stuff. I been googling stuff on it forever. I don't think it sends it to admins in particular but it sent it to my email that was the admin email for the website.

Goztow wrote on Thu, 08 April 2010 13:34To be frank: if they hadn't been banned from Atomix forums, they could have pleaded their cause there instead of here. So they were kinda pushed here...

It was gonna come here anyways no matter what.

I started this flame fest after the bans, this was my outlet. Shit flinging, I do not deny it.

Well I'm glad that you actually admit finally that you started the actual flame fest so I'll give you that.

In all, I think everyone got their points across. The damage has been done for both sides. Everyone got a piece of the drama.
