I never got to read them logs. I remember my admin days on Atomix and doing exactly as Shaitain has done because of my differences with Ungy/Dippy. Seems to be a pattern going on here.

On topic:

1) Why would Hawk make a mod to send you (xpert) the PMs? Wouldn't he make the mod to send to himself? Doesn't really make sense.

2) Dont judge people because of there job, I work for Amazon and while its not exactly the most glamorous job atleast I have a job and not sucking the tax payers money.

3) Im glad Campa isn't apart of Atomix, while he is indeed a great modder he has no people skills whatsoever and whenever he was in the server he would make it look unprofessional. But thats just my beef with him when I was admin.

4) Stealing someone's password isn't cool man, I remember when I had that done to me like 4 years ago. Someone used getpass on my IRC nick and went into my hotmail account, changed my password and then kicked me off MSN. I lost all my private family contacts because of that.
