I really didn't feel like giving you guys the heads up, but I decided it'd be courteous and the right thing to do...

Aspiration Designs (formerly WW-Gaming) has hosted several Renegade files in the past and now we're throwing out what we have left. So please take the time to go through our database and backup w/e you may not have already. As of April 30th, 2010 we will be deleting the last partitions of our old gaming community.

That is all.
