Yeah, you did alot of work for TmX, but that still doesn't change the fact that to this day, your still trying to sabotage us.

Firstly, you had no permission at all, nor did you inform us of registering players nicks with our bot. That caused a problem for us and actually emptied our server. I had to make a temporary script to auth each and everyone of the player nicks as I couldn't remove them as u quite rightly said 'I don't have box access' which is mainly due to you. Reloaded has known u for years and u stabbed him in the back by stealing our maps, our original bot and our original sound package and also our reach script. If I randomly pm'd someone's bot and started registering player's nicknames which I wouldn't be allowed to do, I'd be banned as well. So don't give me this bs that you was jus testing, because quite frankly I couldn't give a flying what your intentions are, but they clearly appeared hostile towards TmX, therefore earnt you a ban, kbai.

Do you have down syndrome dude?

Blacky made your bot and your sound pack is the rxd which is also from blacky. Blacky registered those names while he was an owner there and anyone with a reasonable knowledge of renegade would know how to unregister them with brenbot. Your maps are useless. Anyone with level edit can make them. Sorry to but your bubble but you have little knowledge of this game besides playing it and pretending to know how to be a mod. Also he randomly started pming HIS bot. He was trying to fix shit in it. You can't understand HTML let alone C++ so lets not try to act like a big shot. Also what emptied your servers was the fact that you run your servers of a VPS that cost $30 a month and the fact your bot keeps crashing? It had nothing to do with registered names. Your mods show have to auth while playing anyways.. Do you want anyone to be able to join with a mod name and get instant mod? like maybe try to provide some proof other then blacky testing a plugin he made and maybe people will care.

Until then your the official Sarah Palin of Renegade.

Seams your the one with down syndrome buddy. Firstly he registered players nicks after we kicked him out (a few days ago) so yeah, nice try there. He didn't have any permission to register player's names with our bot. I don't care if I don't understand c+++ or html, jus because he does, it doesn't give him the right to fuck around with our bot. Our maps was made by uT.pepe which reloaded paid for them and had them modified, so once again nice try, but you clearly don't know shit eh. If someone stole maps that you paid for, you'd be jus as pissed as me. Our bot crashing is due to your admin 'mr blacky' joining our servers with nicks with exploits in them, so again nice try. You can't talk either way, your servers are dead, Atomix has clearly won this. There active and your servers are inactive. This post was only made to alert users not to trust Blacky, nothing more.

I didn't realise you was that desperate for attention, posting pics with 'Sarah Palin'. I lol'd anyways, thanks for the laugh.

Also, learn your admin to spell. It's growing tiresome trying to translate such things as this.
