So far these guys have been pretty cool to us "misfits" from Atomix. Clearly, you guys must be 'misfits'. You decided to try a mass rQ much like the Exodus/n00bstories split. Unfortunately for you, some 'bug' gave Xpert the advantage and he quietly removed you all, before you could make a scene.

Even though I'm probably going to get some form of shit for this, I might as well say this last as well. Take your cheat name removed and shove it right up your bum Shadow, you're the worst type of moderator around. lololol, you sir, clearly must be delusional. You're quite happy to share banning info on other players, quite happy to give me tempmod in Ax and quite happy to take my advice. Now because I simply said 'you didn't get the attention you wanted' you decide to turn on me? Okay man. I guess you don't really know someone, until you argue with them eh.

My main point for posting here, is to alert people of Blacky's 'not so nice attitude'.
