Facebook isn't the source of the stupid. Stupid people are.

By your logic, we should shut down the Mod Forum and the Mod Release Forum for creating such terrible skins and other abominations unto the lord. In reality if we did that, the skinfags would just move to General Discussions. The Mod subforums aren't the source of the skinfaggotry, skinfags are. Makes sense?

No, Facebook is a source of stupidity.

Stupidity is a virus and the people are the bacteria that carry it.

Stupid people group on Facebook and then they expand to other parts of the web. Which is what I said originally.
