this is a clan player called framer postin on his bros name...forgot my pw anyways...clan players have already shown there dominance over indy ladder players in the ops(ops being the 2nd best clan at the time)vs. the pits "1337" team....well we won every game and the last 1 we won 8v.12 so that was just sad, but id like to see this game going, goddamn i wanna own some ladder n00bs again
