cool HaTe, i hope to play you for the actual tourney, you dont need a 'reserve' section. Its just a list of who, at any given point in time are ALLOWED to play for a community if you want to put reserves on your own list, for own purposes go for it

Gozy - make sure your guys know about the 'one name rule' im trying to contact all leaders to ensure they know fully.

If this rule is broken, tournament admins like yourself will be instructed to !kick if they are around on IRC. If no one !kicks and an illegitimate player plays, then the reuslt may be nullified and player/team either suffers points penalties/disqualification (all matches will be scrutinised afterwards by admins)

ty guys!
