A nice big emitter wouldn't go astray either.

Maybe a couple sound emitters as well so if you have 3D sound you could pin point it with ease? And maybe some of that green tutorial text at the top of the screen to give you a heads up your near a beacon/c4, perhaps it could even tell you if it was to your left, right, up, down, etc?

"THERE IS A PROXY C4 CHARGE 14.4 METERS TO THE SOUTH EAST. OWNER OF THIS CHARGE IS 'IRW1NN3R1337', WHOM IS STANDING IN THE GDI BARRACKS."
