We're told we're going to suffer the most horrific punishment ever designed for disagreeing with this, the religious claim RIDICULOUS privileges in the here and now, and you say the question of whether a bloody word of it is true is useless?

Quote:Skeptics will find loop holes in anything to have an argument about. They will not accept any form of proof short of having God himself arrive at these peoples house, and explaining his plan to them.

actually, if god did do that it wouldn't make me obey him. it would make me feel a lot worse to know he existed at all.

Quote:The proof of people looking for evidence and believing only certain parts of that information can be proven by looking at anything political. Different people look at things and interpret them differently. Then you get ridiculous arguments where people point to 1 page of a 4000 page report and say this flaw proves you are wrong.

is the bible the word of god or isn't it? is god a being of perfect morality or is he not?

i'll defend that too. i absolutely believe in the right of freedom of belief and have said so many times.

religion doesn't.
