fyi: someone indeed offered a "RA:APB Gamma leak" over @UC as a ~466mb torrent but the link immediately got removed because its against forum rules.

but yes, its just binaries and only the RA:APB game.exe then (if its different as you say) most likely someone of the beta testers leaked it i'd guess...

even if its not (that easily) public anymore, it IS out there and it would be naive to think something like this won't happen. like "F1r3storm" already mentioned: "EVERYTHING eventually gets leaked on the INTERNET" anyways.. in my opinion this won't do much harm. just ignore this "incident" and finish it finally heads up.
