I bought Renegade because I am a DIE HARD C&C fan! I fell in love with the C&C titles since the very first C&C came out. Remember the good old commando and the nod flame tanks? I wasn't too impressed at all with Tiberian Sun when it came out, felt like it was just a sloppy addition with little originality, just new units that did very little for gameplay. However when Renegade came out I immediately went out and bought it. I thought, this is where C&C needs to go! No doubt, I am also a big fps fan.
