@ Spooky

First I owe you an appology for what i'm going to say, but w/e.
Obvious Troll

And that doesn't even show just how annoying and retarded you are. You made your point why you don't want 0x90 on the forum, now take a hint:
GTFO w/ Your FAIL

Yes you have very good reasons and I'm very aware of that myself as server owner. But you will, at some point, have to learn that having good points does not mean everyone agrees to YOUR opinion.

Ontopic:

I think that having 0x90 on renforums doesn't harm anyone, just like it doesn't hurt some cheat forum having me there. Well, actually, I probably hurt them more than having 0x90 on RF hurts RF.

EDIT2:

*Low self esteem; He reacts when people say negative things about him, so is clearly hurt. Also, it's possible that the releases he makes are directly to bolster his esteem because of the cheating communities love for him. He is like a hero to them.

The fucking irony in this is that he has a point. He claims that the cheatcommunity is much more thankful for his creations than the 'normal' community is for creations as scripts.dll or BIATCH. That is an interesting and true point he makes.

Edit: This topic is now about bashing Spooky.
