No he oughtn't. Nothing damaging was said in my opinion. And since it's private information it should not be discussed here.

I am also pretty sure that even if nothing was said in the private forums, EWD would have had the same opinion. From the poll, it seems the majority share that opinion here that there is no good reason to ban 0x90 from these forums.

If you do not want to see him because you principally do not talk to cheaters or feel sick whenever you see his name, then by all means ignore him. There are probably other people who are not banned here who you do not want to talk to.

If you ban 0x90 for harming people here, I'm sure he'll feel much less bad about harming them than if you allow him to be here and read about it. I am actually happy that 0x90 is willing to look at our side of things. Maybe he will realize how much harm he is causing to the people here, and maybe rethink whether he wants to continue doing that. Maybe not; but then what is lost? I would certainly prefer to try. Especially since there is nothing unpleasant in talking to him, even though we may disagree 100% on whether making cheats is acceptable behaviour.
