"Heated Discussions and Debates" maybe?

EDIT: Also it seems like you guys are making Spoonny the bad guy here. This is/was about 0x90, not Spoonny.

You're correct. I did not intend to post here initially, but I wanted to avoid people to draw invalid conclusions from what Spoonny said about EWD and the private discussion, since I have more information on that than people without access there. I completely agree with moving or removing these posts from this topic.

Quote:that was the point in the first place.Making you the bad guy here? That was never the point. It still isn't.
