EvilWhiteDragon wrote on Mon, 17 May 2010 04:58It's about as ridiculous as they way Spoony presents his arguments. Either you agree with him or you are a fucking stupid retarded cheating insulting bitch. Or similar.

You're being dishonest. I don't go around saying that anyone disagreeing with me is a "fucking stupid retarded cheating insulting bitch". I do describe 0x90 along similar lines, because that's what he is, and I do also think it's worth trying to make you see what a low, corrupt thing you've just done and how much more pathetic it makes you look by trying to make me the bad guy to wriggle out of it.

Quote:That does not make any argument a viable, thus one doesn't even need to bother responding decently on it.

your responses were indecent before i addressed you at all, and anyone can check that point very easily by looking at page three.

Quote:I know Spoony's opinion, all fine and dandy, but I cannot agree with the knowledge I have. That does not make me stupid or wwhatever, that makes me having a different opinion than Spoony. Sppony however, being thickheaded as he is, will continuing arguing (with the same arguments) until I/whomever stop replying and think he made is point.

it's more to do with the fact i seem to care about honesty, trustworthiness etc than anyone in TT seems to - at least, that would be the case if what you said about most of TT being on your side is true. yes, i am going to try to talk some fucking sense into you, because you desperately need it right now.

Quote:Also he uses information that was trusted to him (being on TT) and uses it to suggest I personally killed CW (well, nearly anyway). That makes his arguments at least just as retarded as the post you quoted.

Now you're just flat out lying. I can't imagine why you would think you would get away with that, the thread's still here for anyone to see; it's not like any significant time has passed and people would have forgotten what everybody said therein.

There is perhaps a silver lining, though... maybe the fact you're resorting to such desperate measures now is a sign that you realise just what a desperate situation you put yourself in.

Quote:What will banning the guy actually achieve?

firstly it's an achievement in and of itself. secondly it might repair some of the damage to the forum's reputation by the stand it's took on matters like this in the past, though I think the less I say about that the happier some of the admins might be. thirdly, it continually amazes me how many people are so quick to ask this question... somebody does something incredibly destructive? let's find a reason not to show him we mind!

Quote:Have the people of Renegade forums suddenly turned into internet white knites; up in arms because someone breached a holy moral commandment - thou shalt not maketh or cheat?

I don't know about "suddenly", I was saying this years ago and he's made more cheats since then (not being banned in the meantime)

Quote:If that doesn't change your mind, consider letting him stay on the condition he codes something useful for Renegade. A contribution to Anti-Cheats for example.

Then again, would it be unreasonable to ask if he would actually bother putting a considerable amount of effort and time into creating an anti-cheat or try and justify himself for the sake of belonging to a forum?

if you check what i said earlier, you'll see me saying that if he wants people to stop thinking and saying what a piece of shit he is, he ought to try undoing the damage he's done. i don't think he's skilled enough and i don't think he would have the decency to do a good deed (although if he did make a complete anti-cheat, that would end up putting him on '0' on the moral scale, let's be clear about that)
