I did plan on going back and upgrading the released direct connect blocker to use your xwis hook. For the moment though, I am pretty busy being a Daddy, and the current version does at least work (albeit using a second connection to XWIS).

This post should have ended here.

I see little harm in it. It's no secret 0x90 can reverse engineer most mods. Now he's at least being helpful, which is more than what? 75% of Renforums?

Are you saying that 0x90 is more helpfull then 75% of renforums? whats wrong with you?
