Can I just ask one question: what is banning him going to do?

From my point of view, nothing but give him a reason to have animosity towards us. He rarely posts here to begin with.

And if I recall, he took the actual [anti-cheat forum refuses to allow me to name] hook out of the cheat in question a long time ago, and even explained to the RG team how to block RGH. They just never, you know, did it.
