I'm not suggesting you should. I'm asking if you would. Right now my estimates are that he doesn't plan on releasing his more annoying poc's. I don't know what happens when we piss him off. How can anyone be so astonishingly stupid as to suggest that I said he should take responsibility for what someone else does?

"Or he might choose to take revenge. Will you take your responsibility when he does?"

don't try to wriggle out of this. you're saying that if he "takes revenge" on me telling him what a wretched little cunt he is (that you would call that 'revenge' is rather odd), by releasing more cheats (or by working to make these cheats even more undetectable, which he's already said he intends to do), then i'd be responsible.

btw, if you thought you could get away with saying "but spoony's the bad guy here because he doesn't want a compromise", you certainly better not think that anymore. look at what i proposed, the two conditions that i'd say need meeting. firstly 0x90 needs to make a sincere, public apology to the entire renegade community for the enormous amount of damage he's done to it. secondly your dealings with him need to be completely transparent. then perhaps he can help us undo the damage he's done, and after that, i'll stop telling him what a vacuous lump of smegma he is.

if either of those two conditions are too much, then say so. tell everybody here that he doesn't owe the renegade community an apology, and tell everybody here that your private dealings with 0x90 don't need to bear any kind of scrutiny... just so we know where we stand.

I'm ASKING you if you WOULD. I'm NOT saying you SHOULD. Learn to read.
