LOL was the guy who narrated that Chris Sabbot? It sounds like him.

He is a FUNimation VA. In DBZ, he played Piccolo and Vegeta as well as a lot of other people.

And no, it does not 'spooof the entire anime genre.'

First of all anime isn't a genre. There are different genres of anime. You cannot see one and justify the rest as the same thing. It would be like calling book reading a genre.

It was a spooof of overused echii/hentai clichés.
