Oh this is good. I was waiting for his excuse; and I honestly thought he could do better than that. Considering the guy was given administrator status of TMX / Forums and Mod at NS; that isn't enough to not cheat?

I guess all there is to do now is to make him eat his words.

I'll start:

When I was falsely banned at TMX - this was the shit that came out of his mouth.

Good Ol'Hypocrisy

Quote: Now heres the real truth:

You like to shift-hs, when no ones around you spectate kill them using rgh, you wasn't running the latest scripts either.

Don't lie about your KD either, you had a KD of 2.4.

Plus you was banned for bighead in the past at this server, I got some complaints at my msn so decided to go in and take a look, go cheat somewhere else.

Oh btw, when you cheated in the past at this server, we don't need any proof. It's a shame our bans get removed so often.

Quote:I actually did record some fraps, but now that I've reviewed it, I'm not so sure anymore, a typical cheater would post and spam to be unbanned which you haven't really done. The only reason why I'm not so sure anymore is because your nick is 'similar' to a guy we banned for bighead about a year ago. But lucky for you I can't find that banlog because it doesn't exist anymore so I cannot confirm whether or not it was infact you.

Quote:I'll allow you back on one condition.

Use the latest scripts.

You can download them from: www.renegadescripts.tk

Once you've downloaded the scripts give me a pm or post here and you'll be unbanned.

@0x90 plz feel free to join TmX any time, banning you last year made my month.

If you decide to give a formal apology and then help with the TT software (answering questions and what not) then that's a step in the right direction. It doesn't repair all the damage you've done to our community over the years tho. Banning you would be an even greater step in the right direction, I'd love RF to have a policy to ban cheaters...I know its crazy right?

As spoony, ironwarrior flood3d and a few other players stated. Why would we want a cheater talking to us, when he makes our renegade experiance hell by creating cheats.. I strongly agree with Spoony on the point that if we did ban him then it'd show that we actually do care and are setting an example that we hate all cheaters..

To respond to Blazer's posts in the older thread: Why the hell would u want his help with anything, TT wouldn't even be needed if faggots like 0x90 wasn't making cheats.

I understand that Crimson has spent a hell of alot on Renegade and she clearly does care about the community, but I fail to see how having 0x90 on the forums is in any way beneficial, so what if he helped with a few RG problems. We wouldn't even need to use RG if faggots like him didn't create cheats for the game we love so much..*sighs*

Etc Etc.
